Historia Theatre Company

presents

This exciting new play about the "Pilgrim Fathers" will tour in November 2021

MAYFLOWER

THEY KNEW THEY WERE PILGRIMS

written by Kate Glover

directed by Kenneth Michaels

The story of determined men and women, 400 years ago, who crossed the ocean to worship in their own way.

They faced huge odds: bullying by the venture capitalists of the day, sickness and death on board, leaking ships, terrifying storms at sea, and personal heartbreak....

And what would they find when they got there?

THE TOUR

WHERE:

Churches that might be the "doctrinal heirs"
of the Pilgrim Fathers

WHEN:

Thursday 18th November

Bloomsbury Central Baptist Church,
235 Shaftesbury Ave, London WC2H 8EP - 7.30 pm

Saturday 20th November

Highbury Baptist Church,
40 Highbury Pl, London N5 1QL - Matinee at 3 pm

Sunday 21st November

All Hallows By the Tower,
Byward St, London EC3R 5BJ - Matinee at 2.30 pm

Tuesday 30th November

The Dutch Church,
7 Austin Friars, London EC2N 2H - 7.30 pm

TICKETS: £14/£12 available on the door OR online at:
www.historiatheatre.eventbrite.com

AUDIENCE REACTIONS

'Unimaginably sad to be forced to leave a child behind'

'How very precarious the whole undertaking was'

'Beautifully written, acted and directed'

'The highs and lows of their venture into the unknown'

'The play and its performers and their performances stayed with us very emotionally throughout the day'

'I want to see it again'

www.historiatheatre.com

Reg'd Charity 1099807